“Initial” Notice Practicalities

- Is it still current or out-of-date?
  - ☐ Did you move your offices but not your notice location?
- Check them at least once a year.

Notice of Meetings

Recess and Resume

- A public body may recess and resume a properly noticed meeting to a later time or date by making an announcement at the meeting what agenda items will be covered.

Emergency Meetings

A.R.S. § 38-431.02(D) and Agency Handbook section 7.7.9

- In case of “actual emergency,” law permits the board to meet, discuss and decide matters with less than 24 hours notice.
- What constitutes an “actual emergency”?
  - Due to unforeseen circumstances, immediate board action is necessary to avoid a serious consequence that would result from waiting until proper notice could be provided.

Emergency Meeting Requirements

- Provide notice as soon as possible
- Announce in public the reasons necessitating emergency action
- Include reasons in the meeting minutes
- Post a notice stating the emergency session occurred and providing the information required on a normal agenda within 24 hours after the meeting

Social Events & Seminars

- You might consider posting a “courtesy agenda” announcing event and explain that a quorum might be present
- Identify date, time, and purpose (location details will vary depending on event)
- State that no business of the public body will be discussed and no legal action will be proposed or taken
- Members must be scrupulous to avoid improper discussion

The Agenda

A.R.S. § 38-431.02(H)

- Must list the specific matters to be:
  - ☐ discussed,
  - ☐ considered or
  - ☐ decided
- Must include information reasonably necessary to inform the public

Common Agenda Problems

- Using language a regular person would not understand

  - ☐ Agency slang
- Using general categories without details
  - ☐ “New Business”
  - ☐ “Old Business”
  - ☐ “Personnel”
  - ☐ “Reports”

Current Events – A.R.S. § 38-431.02(K)

- Chief administrator, presiding officer or a member of a public body may present a brief summary of current events without listing in the agenda the specific matters to be summarized
- provided that

- & public body does not propose, discuss, deliberate or take legal action

If it's not on the agenda...

- You cannot discuss it!
- All discussion must be reasonably related to an adequately described agenda item.
- New items must wait for a future meeting.

Meeting Location Pitfalls

- Inaccessible

- ☐ A board member's house
- ☐ Private country club
- ☐ Remote location

- Inaudible

- Not enough room

- Unreasonable times (very subjective)

Virtual Meetings

- You may have a meeting through the Internet or other online medium.
- So long as the public body meets all the open meeting law requirements and promotes public access:
  - ☐ Provide clear notice/agenda
  - ☐ Facilitate access
  - ☐ Maintain meeting minutes
  - ☐ Properly preserve all documents created
- See Ariz. Att'y Gen. Opinion I08-008
- Seek legal guidance

Public's Rights

- Attend
- Listen
- Tape record
- Videotape

Note: Public body cannot require attendees to identify themselves or sign in (unless they are making a presentation)

Public has NO Right to:

- Speak
- Disrupt

Practical Pointer:

- ☐ make a good record of warnings
- ☐ Video or audio tape can be your friend

Calls to the Public

Common Pitfall of Calls to the Public

- Discussing matters not listed on the agenda.
- If it's not an agenda item, public body's response is limited to:
  - Direct staff to study the matter
  - Ask that a matter be placed on a future agenda
  - Respond to criticism

Note: These three responses must take place at the conclusion of the call to the public!

Meeting Etiquette

- Asking for trouble:

- ☐ Passing notes, texting, e-mailing (even if it's about when to order lunch)
- ☐ Whispering to fellow board members
- ☐ Quorum talking with individuals before the meeting officially starts or after the meeting officially ends.

Executive Sessions

- Public excluded

- Must include possibility of executive session in the meeting notice and agenda
- Must vote to enter executive session
- Discussion is confidential
- No action permitted!
- Must have minutes or recording

Executive Sessions

- Just because you CAN have one, should you?
- Public suspicion vs. actual need

Executive Session Notice/Agenda

- Notice must include the statutory section authorizing the executive session
- Agenda must provide a general description of the matters to be discussed or considered
  - Needs to be more than a statutory citation
  - Need not contain information that would:
    - Defeat the purpose of the executive session
    - Compromise the legitimate privacy interests of a public officer, appointee, or employee
    - Compromise the attorney-client privilege

Who may attend executive sessions - A.R.S. § 38-431(2)

- Members of public body
- Persons subject to a personnel discussion
- Auditor general
- Individuals whose presence is reasonably necessary in order for the public body to carry out its executive session responsibilities
  - Clerk to take minutes/run tape
  - Attorney to give legal advice

Tip: Put on the record why individuals attending are reasonably necessary.

Executive Session Pitfalls

- Inappropriate disclosure
  - What happens in executive session stays in executive session!
  - Chair must remind members about the confidentiality requirement every time.
    - A.R.S. § 38-431.03(C)
- Taking legal action.
  - All votes must take place in public!

Personnel Matters

- May discuss and consider employment, assignment, appointment, promotion, demotion, dismissal, salaries, discipline or resignation
- Of an officer, appointee, or employee of the Board
  - Must be able to identify a specific individual

More considerations regarding Personnel Matters

- If the matter is noticed for a possible executive session, separate written notice to employee at least 24 hours before meeting.
- Employee may require meeting be held in public (does not include individual salary discussions).
- Employee does not have the right to attend executive session, but may. (Regardless, employee has access to portion of executive session meeting minutes.)

Common Questions

Q: May you conduct personnel evaluations in executive session?

A: Yes. See Ariz. Att'y Gen. Op. I96-012

Q: May a board interview applicants in executive session?

A: Yes, if position is one appointed by the board.
See Ariz. Att'y Gen. Op. I83-050.

Note: Must vote for appointment in public session

Confidential Information

- Discussion or consideration of records exempt by law from public inspection
- Can receive and discuss information and testimony that state or federal law requires to be maintained as confidential
- Discussion may occur in open session when confidential information is adequately safeguarded (i.e. use initial for medical patients)

Legal Advice

- Discussion or consultation for legal advice with attorneys for the public body
- Exchange of communication between lawyer and client
- Members may not discuss among themselves the merits or what action to take:
  - Debate over what action to take,
  - pros and cons, or
  - policy implications of competing alternative courses of action.

Other Possible Reasons for Executive Session

- Discuss and consult with attorneys to consider litigation, contract negotiations, and settlement
- Discussion regarding negotiation with employee organizations about salary.
- International, Interstate, and Tribal Negotiations.
- Discussion regarding negotiations for the purchase, sale, or lease of real property.

Minutes

A.R.S. § 38-431.01(B)

- Minutes or recording required
  - Caution: Pursuant to A.R.S. § 39-101, permanent records must be on paper.
  - Tape recordings – must be retained for at least 3 months, but no more than 5 years!

Content of Public Meeting Minutes

1. Date, time and place of meeting
2. Members present & absent
3. General description of matters considered
4. Accurate description of legal action
5. Names of members who propose each motion
6. Names of persons, as given, making statements or presenting material to the public body; and
7. A reference to the legal action about which they made statements or presented material

Access to Public Meeting Minutes

- Minutes or a recording shall be open to public inspection 3 working days after the meeting
- NOT AFTER APPROVAL – no requirement in the OML to approve minutes

Meeting Minutes: cities and towns

  - Take written minutes or record all meetings, including executive sessions
  - Within 10 working days of the meeting,
subcommittee or advisory committee of a city or town with a population of 2,500 or more must:
    - Post a statement describing any legal action or
    - Post any recording of a public meeting

Executive Session Meeting Minutes

  - ☐ Burden of proof – Fisher case
- Shall include the following:
  - ☐ Date, time and place of meeting
  - ☐ Members present & absent
  - ☐ General description of matters considered
  - ☐ An accurate description of all instructions given
  - ☐ Such other matters as deemed appropriate by the public body
- Shall be kept confidential (A.R.S. § 38-431.03(B))

Access to Executive Session Meeting Minutes

- Meeting minutes of executive session shall only be released to:
  - Members of the public body
  - Officers, appointees, or employees who were the subject of discussion or consideration (only that portion)
  - Auditor general in connection with an audit
  - County attorney, attorney general or ombudsman when investigating alleged violations

Circumvention

- Cannot use any device to circumvent the law.
- “Splintering the quorum”:
  - Serial communications (verbal, written, electronic, etc.)
    - Meeting with individual members and then reporting what others said with enough to constitute a quorum
  - Polling the members

Serial Communications - May Violate OML

- Going from one person to the next, sharing communications would violate OML
  - Arizona Agency Handbook § 7.5.2

Non-verbal Serial Communications

- Letters - series of letters from one member to the next would violate OML
- E-mail – occurring at different times will still constitute a “meeting” in violation of the OML
  - Simultaneity is not required for there to be a “meeting”

Attorney General Opinion I05-004: E-mail

- Attorney General's website www.azag.gov
- Board members cannot use e-mail to circumvent the OML
- Cannot use e-mail among a quorum to:
  - ☐ Propose legal action
  - ☐ Discuss legal action
  - ☐ Deliberate on legal action
  - ☐ Take legal action

E-mail Communications

- E-mail communications are treated the same as any other form of communication between board members.
- E-mails exchanged among a quorum of the Board that involve discussion, deliberations, or taking legal action on matters that may come before the Board constitute a meeting and thus violate the open meeting law.

For example:

- You have a 5 member board
- One member sends an e-mail to 2 members and there's a response shared among all 3
- You now have a discussion among three members = a quorum
- Violation

Facts vs. Opinion?

- There is no distinction between discussing facts vs. discussing opinions among a quorum
- Deliberation = “collective acquisition and exchange of facts preliminary to a final decision”
- Therefore, 2-way discussion of facts (among quorum) regarding potential board business = violation

Board might consider...

- a statement on e-mail that provides:
“To ensure compliance with the Open Meeting Law, recipients of this message should not forward it to other members of the Board. Members of the Board may reply to this message, but they should not send a copy of their reply to other members.”

Staff E-mail

- Staff may send e-mail to board members.
- Passive receipt of information from staff, without more, does not violate the open meeting law.
Example: board packets
- Staff may NOT send opinion or substantive communication about board business from a board member to enough other members to constitute a quorum.

Prohibited 1-Way Communication

- A single board member may violate the OML if they propose legal action among a quorum outside a properly noticed meeting
- “Propose” – means “to put forward for consideration, discussion, or adoption.”
- It only takes 1 person to propose legal action
- CANNOT propose legal actions outside of a noticed meeting

Proposing an Agenda Item?

- Proposing an item for the agenda does not propose legal action
- “without more”
- Be cautious:
  - communicate the TOPIC only
  - NOT the legal action you want the board to take

“Propose” –

EXAMPLES in the Opinion

- “Councilperson Smith was admitted to the hospital last night”
  - Does NOT propose legal action

- “We should install a crosswalk at First and Main”
  - Does propose legal action
  - It’s more than a topic for the agenda because it urges or suggests an outcome

Now, you try these:

Proposing Legal Action 101

- “Here’s the recipe for the lemon bars I brought to the last meeting.”
- “I hope I can count on all of you to vote in favor of agenda item 5.”

More examples:

Proposing Legal Action 301 Level Course

- “Here’s an article on a program Greenlee County put in place.”
- “We need to adopt a program like the one discussed in the attached article.”

Example: Master's Program Level

- “We need to consider adopting a program like the one discussed in the attached article.”
- Does this propose legal action or only an agenda item?
- When in doubt. . . .?

More Examples: PhD Level

- “I think we should consider firing the Executive Director at our next meeting.”
- “I would like to discuss the Executive Director’s performance at our next meeting.”

Staff & Other Persons

- Cannot direct staff to communicate in violation of the open meeting law – A.R.S. § 38-431.01(I)
- Sanctions may be imposed upon any person who knowingly aids, agrees to aid or attempts to aid another person in violating this article – A.R.S. § 38-431.07(A).

Communications with the Public

- Members may express opinions and discuss issues with the public at a venue other than a public meeting, personally, through the media or other public broadcast so long as it is not intended to circumvent the open meeting law

What does that mean?

- Discussion or opinion must not be principally directed at or directly given to other board members
- There is no plan to engage in collective deliberation to take legal action.
- Review these resources:
  - A.R.S. § 38-431.09(B) added by 2008 Session Laws, Ch. 135, § 1 (effective 9/26/08)
  - Attorney General Opinion I07-013

When in Doubt?

- RESOLVE ALL DOUBTS IN FAVOR OF OPENNESS.
- Remember: legal action taken during a meeting held in violation of any provision of the open meeting law is null and void unless ratified.

What to do when you learn that a potential OML violation has occurred.

- If in the thick of things = Recess/Assess
- Can you resolve the issue and continue?
- Does the particular OML violation taint your whole meeting? Maybe not – AG Opinion I08-001

After the meeting...

- Be Proactive
- Determine if you need to ratify any actions
- Meet with your media person
- Provide refresher training to staff involved
- If you receive a complaint: Be candid; respond promptly
- Provide materials that help you: minutes, ratification materials, videotapes, etc.

Ratification – A.R.S. § 38-431.05

- Within 30 days after discovery of the violation or when should have been discovered with reasonable diligence
  - Tanque Verde Unified School Dist. v. Bernini, 206 Ariz. 200, 76 P.3d 874 (App. 2003) (30 days after court ruling OK)

Ratification Continued...

- Notice 72 hours before the meeting
  - Description of action to be ratified
  - Clear statement that the body proposes to ratify a prior action
  - Information on how to obtain detailed written description of the action
    - Written description includes:
      - Action to be ratified
      - All of the preceding deliberations, consultations and decisions that preceded and related to the action
      - Must be included in minutes

Attorney General Opinion I08-001

Re: Ratification

- If one agenda item is improper, the remainder of agenda is most likely valid.
- If improper item involves entire agenda/notice/meeting, all actions will be invalid.

Penalties - A.R.S. § 38-431.07(A)

- Members and any persons who aid, attempt, or agree to aid -
  - Civil penalty up to $500 for each violation
  - Such equitable relief as the court deems appropriate
  - Reasonable attorneys' fees
- If intent to deprive the public of information –
  - Court may remove public officer from office and
  - Charge officer and any person that aided, agreed to aid, or attempted to aid, all the costs and attorney's fees
